

Without you, these bright children might fail...

With your help, they can reach their potential.

Ethiopian-Israeli children face challenges at every turn:

- 50% of Ethiopian-Israeli children in elementary school are below class average in Hebrew, English, math and science.
- 45% of immigrant Ethiopian parents in Israel cannot speak, read or write basic Hebrew, or help their children with their school work.

With your help, The NACOEJ / Limudiah Intensive After-School Education for Ethiopian-Israeli School Children:

- Ensures a solid and successful elementary school education for thousands of young Ethiopian-Israelis.
- Provides 10-12 extra hours per week of teaching and homework help, focusing on reading, writing, math, and basic study skills, in small classes of eight students to one teacher.
- Protects Ethiopian-Israeli students from experiencing classroom failure that leads to anger, alienation and dropping out.
- Provides nourishing hot lunches to help children from impoverished homes concentrate, learn and succeed.

- $36 Lunch for one Limudiah class for two days
- $72 Books for four Limudiah students for one year
- $180 Field trips and special activities for one class for one year
- $400 Summer learning day-camp for two students
- $750 Books and supplies for 20 students for one year
- $1,600 Cost for one child per school year in Limudiah
- $4,000 Summer learning day-camp for 20 students
- $12,800 Covers all Limudiah expenses for one class for one school year, including hot lunches
- Other

NACOEJ / Limudiah Intensive After-School Education for Ethiopian-Israeli School Children

To support Ethiopian-Israeli elementary school children in the Limudiah program, please send your tax-deductible contribution with this form to:

NACOEJ
 255 West 36th St. Suite 701
 New York, NY 10018
 Phone: 212-233-5200 x 223 Fax: 212-233-5243
 nacoelj@nacoelj.org www.nacoelj.org

Check enclosed $ _____
 Charge my (circle one) Visa MC AMEX $ _____
 Card # _____ Expires: _____
 Name: _____
 Address: _____

 Phone: _____
 Email: _____